THE LEGACY

Founding

The Welch Brothers

Century Boat Company was founded in 1926 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin by two brothers, James and William Welch, who specialized in building wooden plank hulls designed for speed. In 1928, the company moved to Manistee, Michigan.

History

Designed for speed and fun...

Century's "Hurricane" held the world's outboard speed record of 50.93 miles per hour. By 1937, Century offered 28 models. In the early 1960s, Century Boats introduced its first jet-powered boat. In the late 1960s, Century began creating composite fiberglass hulls. In 1983 the company moved to Panama City, FL. Century led the popularization of boats with car like attributes.

Today

Multiple product lines for discerning boaters

Having sold 10,000+ boats over 95 years, Century Boats designs and builds high quality, luxury boats of many sizes in Tampa, FL. It sells its boats primarily through a vast, global dealer network.
